Course Description

The influence of the law is far-reaching in the corporate world. Whether an entrepreneur, manager, administrative assistant, union employee, nonunion employee, sales representative, purchasing agent, etc., the law ultimately affects how we make decisions in the work arena. This course allows students to discover the wide range of laws affecting America's business environment. Students will learn how the law is established and developed, and be provided with tools to recognize potential legal issues that arise in daily business operations. The curriculum considers the impact of the law in the global workplace, and in commerce, business operations, employer/employee relationships, and in the regulatory environment.

Learning Outcomes

After completing this course, you will be able to:

- Identify risks to business and apply methods for mitigating those risks.
- Recognize the legal relationships that exist in the workplace and articulate the terminology describing those relationships.
- Apply ethical reasoning to particular ethical questions in business and the professions.

Learning Strategies and Resources

A variety of learning strategies will be employed, including textbook readings, online discussions, informal lectures, case law review, contracts review, and individual and group exercises. D2L will be updated weekly to include any additional required readings/homework assignments.
