Five on-campus sessions* (three hours each) will be scheduled each quarter + directed independent study in-between sessions using D2L.

SPRING—2020
This course functions as a Graduate-Faculty-Directed Independent Study/GFDIS. (See MAEA Guidebook for general GFDIS details.) Students critically examine and apply diverse ways of defining, analyzing and engaging in social justice education—as both educators and learners. Key dimensions of social justice approaches to education of adults (culture, ethics and politics; facilitation; curriculum development; and, educator as change-agent) will be addressed. In addition to critical reflection on assigned readings, students will observe social justice education in a community context (arranged by the instructor) and will apply social justice principles to an educational offering in their own practice sites. (Questions? Contact instructor at JHURTIG@depaul.edu.)

EA-547 Designing Online Learning GFDIS (Fac: Neustrom) (4cr)
-Three on-campus sessions* (three hours each) will be scheduled each quarter + directed independent study in-between using D2L.

WINTER and SUMMER—2020
This course functions as a Graduate Faculty-Directed Independent Study/GFDIS. (See MAEA Guidebook for general GFDIS details.) Course addresses the process of designing effective, learner-centered online offerings such as webinars, workshops, or modules for use in formal education or training settings. Using adult learning principles, best practices, and backward planning, learning outcomes, content, and assessments are developed and delivered in a virtual environment. Formal and informal learning communities are explored using social media for learner engagement and interaction. The instructor incorporates interactive lectures and group discussions. Assessment criteria and rubrics guide feedback for ongoing learning as well as for final evaluation of performance. Students will have an opportunity to design an offering specifically applicable to their needs and interests with regard to helping adults learn. (Questions? Contact instructor at susan@susanneustrom.com.)
