Spring Term Course Descriptions

LL 280 / CCH 219 – The Fight for Human Rights (Liberal Arts in Action) – 6 and 4 credit hours (4/1/24 – 6/14/24) – On-site – Lincoln Park Campus – M/W – 4:10pm – 5:50 pm.

Helen Prejean is a leading human rights activist in the United States. For the past 40 years, she has helped shape conversation about equal treatment for all within the criminal justice system, especially persons of color and the materially poor. Dead Man Walking, the eyewitness account of her experience accompanying condemned prisoners to execution, has had a major influence on discussion of violence, poverty, civil rights, criminal law, and social justice. In this course, we use her work and interact with her personally to study power inequities across race and class lines that perpetuate injustice and examine her strategies for reform.

Domestic Travel – Spring Term 2024

CCH 306 - Travel and Learn in Boston – Domestic Travel 5/2/24 – 5/5/24

Zoom Synchronous class dates 4/12, 4/19, 4/26, 5/17, 5/31 6:30-8:30PM CST.

Boston is a city of many faces. Culturally and educationally, it is no doubt a world-class city, yet it competes with New York City and Philadelphia for the title of best place to experience American history and art. Boston has fame for the riches made by old money profits but also for its colorful mob history. With such internal paradoxes and external competitors, why choose a travel course to Boston? Here is why: In this domestic travel course, participants will walk the famous freedom trail and other historic sites, visit Boston's famous art collections, and experience its diverse neighborhoods like Boston Common, Beacon Hill, and the North End. Issues such as Boston's immigrant populations, its fame as a seat of American higher education, its connection to events in American history, and its stake in the meaning of freedom and democracy will be discussed in the preparatory classes as well as in post travel learning as students work on individual projects. This high impact travel course involves online classes preparing for and debriefing from a long weekend—the evening of 5/2/2024, 6pm EST through the afternoon of 5/5/2024, 2pm EST—spent learning on site in the city of Boston. An additional course fee of $275.00 will be applied to each student's account for group admissions costs and students will cover their own airfare, food, and accommodation expenses while in Boston.

You might qualify for a travel fee scholarship. Simply submit FAFSA at studentaid.gov and submit the General and SCPS applications on Scholarship Connect at depaul.academicworks.com.

LL 302 - Experiential Learning Practicum – Topic: Mindfulness Retreat – Domestic Travel – Retreat at Starved Rock – May 16-19, 2024.

This course is designed to provide students with both academic knowledge and first-hand experiential understanding of mindfulness meditation. Students will focus on developing personal and professional skills through reflection and engagement with course content. It provides students with a deep understanding of mindfulness meditation, its various techniques, benefits, and investigation of its broader ethical applications such as compassion, kindness, and building community.

This online-offsite hybrid course includes a four-day mindfulness meditation retreat at Starved Rock State Park in Utica, IL May 16-19, 2024, as well as online learning activities throughout the quarter. Mindfulness meditation is a popular practice that can help build our attention and reduce our reactivity to life stressors. It is widely studied by neuroscientists, psychologists, philosophers, and others interested in a contemporary, secular approach to meditation.

The four-day in-person retreat allows students time to apply class learning in a longer immersive experience and deepen their understanding of the material covered online. By applying the characteristics of experiential learning to the mindfulness practice, you can develop a deeper and more meaningful engagement with mindfulness.

In addition to the regular tuition, students pay a $775 fee that covers three nights of housing at Starved Rock Lodge and two group meals. Students are responsible for the costs of the rest of their meals at the Lodge's cafe or restaurant. Students will have their own room/bath with a small refrigerator and microwave. Students are responsible for their own transportation to and from Starved Rock. For additional information contact jcantwel@depaul.edu before enrolling.

You might qualify for a travel fee scholarship. Simply submit FAFSA at studentaid.gov and submit the General and SCPS applications on Scholarship Connect at depaul.academicworks.com.
