

STUDY: GHANA, TOGO AND BENIN

DECEMBER INTERSESSION PROGRAM

Application Deadline: May 1

What do traditional healing, ancient kingdoms, colonial history, culture, creativity and self-development, and modern technology have in common? Come to Ghana, Togo and Benin and find out! While learning about traditional African world views in connection with modern culture and technology, students explore the richness of West African cultures. In addition, participants visit world historical sites, universities, marketplaces and cultural venues, helping students to challenge the myths and misconceptions about the Continent and her people. SNL students receive 4 of the following competencies: H1F, H3B, A3B, S3B, S3X, L10, L11 and FX. Non-SNL students receive 8 credits total, INT 399 in the fall quarter and REL 299 (JYEL) in the winter quarter.

Financial aid and scholarships are available.

DEPAUL UNIVERSITY

STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM

abroad@depaul.edu

(312) 362-6962

studyabroad.depaul.edu